FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fall for a Pyr Adoption/Fostering Event, Saturday, October 1, 12-3 pm

September 22, 2016, Albion, NY—Fall is a great time to adopt or foster a dog. Have you always wanted to meet a Great Pyrenees but didn't know where? Olde Dogge Inn in Albion, NY is hosting a meet n' greet for adoptable Great Pyrenees dogs on Saturday, October 1 from 12-3 pm.

Five dogs from National Great Pyrenees Rescue will be on hand at the Olde Dogge Inn for introductions to potential adopters or fosters. Two friendly young male Pyr mixes, Sam and Dean, who are about one, will be happy to meet you. Three charming females, Wanda, aged four, Beauty, one and Zuri, 17 months, are looking forward to the big day, too! There will be plenty of information about the breed and the dogs' fosters will be there to tell you about them.

The dogs are spayed or neutered, up-to-date on vaccinations and ready to go to an adoptive or foster home. A 20% discount off the regular adoption fee is available to qualified adopters who bring home a dog on that day. Go to www.nationalpyr.org/adoption-center to read more about the dogs and fill out an adoption application. Not ready to adopt? Fostering and foster-to-adopt options will be explained by our volunteers.

We all look forward to seeing you Saturday October 1 at the Olde Dogge Inn, 14472 Ridge Road, Albion, NY, phone 585-589-5004. Don't forget, Saturday, October 1st, rain or shine, is the day you're going to fall for a Pyr.
