NGPR is On Twitter

Rescue news--both good and bad--happens every day. Quarterly newsletters like this are great but we want you to know what's happening on a more frequent basis. NGPR is on Facebook and tweeting and blogging on www.nationalpyr.org so you can follow the dogs more closely. The old guestbook on our site is gone and now you can post your comments directly on our blog. There's a whole new world of communications out there and NGPR and Pyr rescue are part of it.

Bark With Us in Syracuse

Saturday May 30 Syracuse, NY
2nd Annual
The Bark Heard Around the World

Any event that has the word "Bark" in it seems a likely place for Pyrs to be. NGPR had a booth at the first Bark Heard Around the World last year (one of our many firsts for Pyr rescue) and will have a table again this year. Come and bark with us on Saturday, May 30 at the Syracuse Fair Grounds. Lots to see, do, eat and bark at. For the link to Bark visit NGPR's home page www.nationalpyr.org.

What Moms Want

With Mother's Day just around the corner, this is a good time to visit the NationalPyr store or to send loved ones there to buy something for you. There's a great variety of stuff (both naughty and nice) with our favorite dogs on it. Best of all, your purchase helps Pyr rescue. Debi, one of our talented volunteers, put a lot of time and effort into making everything look good, so please visit www.cafepress.com/nationalpyr.

PYRS at PETSMART

Last fall, NGPR's loyal friends Tracey and Lynn, manager at a NY PetSmart, encouraged NGPR to become a PetSmart adoption partner. As a not-for-profit rescue, NGPR could register and attend Adoption Days at any store. We needed someone to organize this, so Chris, an NGPR adopter and supporter, contacted PetSmart stores to arrange for our participation in their Spring Adoption Days. On May 2 NGPR volunteers went to Nanuet, Ithaca and Kingston, NY. We handed out breed literature, explained the adoption process and showed off our wonderful dogs. We'd like to do more. To be a PetSmart Pyr ambassador, pls. contact director@nationalpyr.org.

★ Izzy's Last Days ★

Isabelle, fondly known as Izzy, was an owner surrender who needed immediate surgery. The surrender form was submitted to NGPR and Carole Gonzales with Pyr rescue in Wisconsin, took 9-month old Isabelle in and took on a $2,200 surgery bill. There are just a few days left to ChipIn to help with Isabelle's huge vet bill. To read more about darling Izzy and to ChipIn, please visit Izzy's page at <http://nationalpyr.org/wordpress/?cat=5>.
